

The Rotary Club of Alamance

District Conference Reimbursement Policy

The following policy is a statement of how our club handles reimbursements for the District Conference.

It will be the policy of the club to cover hotel and registration fees for the President and President elect for district conference. Other expenses such as travel will be covered by the member. Also four additional members (board members receiving priority) may be reimbursed up to $500 each for expenses related to the conference.